GLEICHEN, ALBERTA, WEDNESDAY,

OPPORTUNITIES OF 1923

Fortunes can be made in depressions as well as in periods of prosperity, but they are made by a different class of people and by different methods. In periods of prosperity the borrower, the speculator, the trader and the agitator prosper most. In periods of depression the lender, the investor, the builder and the producer succeed. The opportunities of 1923 are for those in this group who substitute thrift for extravagance, industry for indifference, efficiency for inefficiency, honesty for dishonesty and service for selfishness.

COURAGE FOR THE NEW YEAR

Have the courage to start right and keep right.
Have courage to turn from evil and to cling to that which is good.

Have the courage to prefer comfort and propriety to fashion in all things.

Have courage to wear your old clothes until you can pay for the new ones.

Have the courage to discharge a debt while you have the money in your pocket.

Have the courage to obey your conscience at the risk of being ridiculed by men.

Have the courage to own that you are poor, and thus disarm poverty of its sharpest sting.

Have the courage to wear thick boots in winter and insist upon your wife and daughter doing the same.

Have courage to do without that which you do not need, however much your eyes may covet it.

Have the courage to speak to a friend in a "seedy coat" even though you are in company with a rich one and richly attired.

Have the courage to speak your mind when it is necessary that you should do so, and to hold your tongue when it is prudent you should do so.

Have the courage to show your respect for honesty in whatever guise it appears; and your contempt for dishonesty and duplicity, by whomsoever exhibited.

Have the courage to "cut" the most agreeable acquaintance you have when you are convinced that he lacks principle. "A friend should bear with a friend's infirmities, but not with his vices."

Have the courage to stand by your convictions, be both courteous and firm, make no compromise with evil, not turning into by and forbidden paths; choose the right, reject the wrong; be good and do good and then you will have a Happy New Year.

The good house wife gets the meal, dresses the children, sweeps, bakes, mends, does the washing and when the shades of evening gather she finds that human possibilities and endurance have reached the limit. The banker, after the morning meal, goes to the counting room delves in facts and figures all day, and when he goes home it is often with a feeling of nervous prostration. The doctor, dentist, dry goods man, grocer, newspaper man, implement dealer, druggist all these, after displaying a liberal amount Roosevelt strenuously all day and many times until long after the sun have had their frolic and gone to roost—well they feel as though life, at the very best, is made up of toil.

When an unpleasant task lies ahead of you get it behind you without delay.

The man who can but doesn't, must give way to the man who can't, but tries.

When a man assumes a public trust he should consider himself as public property.

That one man might get something for nothing, another must get nothing for something.

Many are buying today who hesitated yesterday. There will be more tomorrow. Now is the time for the man who has something worth while to sell to make it known.

If there is one thing in which churches, as a rule, need to be more careful, it is the matter of preachers' salaries. With an indifference and an insensibility which we cannot understand many churches seem to think that a contract between themselves and the minister is no contract at all. They promise him a definite salary then pay him whatever is convenient. The gas man, the coal man and even the sexton must be paid, but the debt owing the minister is looked upon as altogether righteous and proper.

KEEPING THE TRAINS SPOTLESS

1. Picking away the grime after having had their turn on the vacuum. 2. Cleaning the pillow on the vacuum cleaner invented by Canadian Pacific employees. 3. The train carpet beater in action. Straps attached to the roller clean the entire car.

A FEW hours spent in the Winipeg, Montreal and Vancouver yards of the Canadian Pacific Railway while the dining and passenger trains are being cleaned gives one the assurance that there is little need for travellers to worry as far as germs are concerned.

The yards are equipped with the very latest devices for the cleaning and equipping of its trains. The same pattern of equipment is in use in Winnipeg, Montreal and Vancouver, and at these three terminals the coaches undergo a thorough cleaning. Approximately 110 cars are cleaned in Winnipeg per day, and it costs $18.00 to clean each car.

When a passenger train arrives at any Winnipeg terminal, it is run down to the coach yard and every inch of the train is cleaned. The dining cars are cleaned with the most powerful cleaning machines, and the kitchen and galley are cleaned with the most powerful cleaning machines. The dining cars are cleaned with the most powerful cleaning machines, and the kitchen and galley are cleaned with the most powerful cleaning machines.

There are at present in the entire system 125 dining cars which are cleaned approximately 5,000 times per day on average. This is the Winnipeg coach yard, and the cleaning is done by the building and linen department.

It is here that bread, cakes and pastries are made each day to meet the demand for the Buffet and Dining cars. There is a first-class kitchen in each car, and the kitchen is well equipped with the most powerful cleaning machines. QUEENSTOWN NEWS

The Misses Dagmar and Edith Giambeck are spending their holidays at home.

The young people are still waiting for that wedding dance. How about it Johnny Martin.

E. Barnes has gone to North Dakota to visit his father during the year end holidays.

Rabbis are getting so thick around Queenstown that it will soon be necessary to have a rabbit drive.

It looks very much like the Queenstownians will lose their post office. P. Bell, who has been a faithful postmaster now for many years is going away for the winter and giving up the post office.

All the old timers and weather prophets who predicted a mild winter, when they made their predictions. If the weather we had recently for about three weeks was not real winter I would like to know what it is. The tawny Chinkoo was a real Christmas gift.

Not long ago a Queenstown farmer was sitting down in his barn door looking at his dog and was overheard addressing the dog something like this: "Yoy was only a dog, but I wish I was you. When you go into the bed in, I had to lock up the place and wind de clock and pud de cat out and undress myself, and my wife wakes up and looks me, den de baby cries and I had to walk him up and down, then maybe I shut go to sleep but time to get up again. Yen you get-up you shut stretch yourself and scratch a couple of times and you vos up. I had to light de fire, put on the kettle, scrap mit my wife already, and maybe get some breakfast. You play around all day and had plenty of fun. I half to work all day and had plenty of trouble. When you die you vos dead. Yen I die I had to go to hell yet."—It wasn't our friend John.

CARD OF THANKS

Mr. and Mrs. Eli Woods and family desire to acknowledge their heartfelt appreciation of the many kindnesses shown them during the illness of their little daughter and their sad bereavement, and especially thank all those who so generously sent Christmas presents and floral offerings.

OUELLETTEVILLE NEWS
CRITICIZED

Your correspondence in reviewing the entertainment at Meadow Grass School, might have made a few additions. The entertainment was far as the participants were concerned was very good, but when Mrs. Rogers was her most pathetic part, three or four young fellows in the front row, who should have known better, made a disgraceful display and the management should have thrown them out. Young men who have grown to manhood and cannot conduct themselves better, throw a reflection on their own home too often not warranted.

I also take exception to the supper at midnight. If my memory serves me right, it was far in the next morning, before the midnight lunch was served, when we had another taste of rowdiness, and those that should have been suppressed.

The dances at Meadow Grass will get into disrepute if this is allowed to continue.
